Capturing real life with passion

REAL moments, inspired by life, and created with passion are the cornerstone of what outstanding photographic studio Designed Photography stands for.

Recognised for their ability to capture style and personality in a fine art print, at an affordable price, Designed Photography has been in business since 2001, and offers something different from the average studio photo shoot.

Owner Olga Nebot describes her work as candid moments with elements of design, creating a unique look and feel to portraits. "The vibrant enthusiasm and creativity of our team enables us to produce provoking and memorable images, whatever the occasion," she said.

Designed Photography offers high quality work at a fair price, with straight forward pricing, and the chance for clients to save by purchasing bundled packages. You can contact Designed Photography on 9837 6998, or visit them at Shop 2A, 454 Quakers Hill Parkway, Quakers Hill. To see some of Designed Photography's outstanding work, visit www.dphoto.info

Hairdressing gets a move on

HOTM, or Hairdressers on the Move, a new concept whereby a complete professional salon experience comes directly to the client, has arrived at Glenwood.

Simply put, hairdressing clients get a fully qualified senior hairdresser who is passionate about hair and their clients, who will attend to them on time and make and then keep them looking gorgeous, they'll even brink the salon sink.

HOTM recently starting their expansion program and currently have four franchisees and will have a further 10 this year, and joining the group are two great local, professional hairdressers - Annabelle and Flo.

The girls are great hairdressers and lovely people who wanted to start a business of their own, but couldn't get going for one reason or another, until they found HOTM.

Now that they have joined HOTM they are on their way to setting up a fabulous little business that will generate them an excellent income with time left over to be with their family and friends. To book an appointment with the local HOTM team, call Annabelle and Flo on 1300 00 HAIR.
